Momentum, as part of the MMI family, is committed to helping you, your business and your employees fulfil your lifelong financial needs by providing relevant and unique solutions to suit your pocket and circumstances. It is our aim to build and maintain enduring relationships by providing products, processes and services that exceed your expectations.

The gap

Employer sponsored benefits are often the only source of retirement savings and insurance cover that an employee has.

Socially responsible employers often offer retirement and insurance benefits to their employees.

Overview of the solutions

FundsAtWork consists of a range of legal vehicles which cater for insurance solutions, umbrella provident fund solutions, post-retirement benefits, preservation of savings and conversion of insurance benefits on exit.

Healthy Heart benefit

FundsAtWork and Multiply reward members financially for their physical wellness with the Healthy Heart Score. This is another preventative measure that brings members even more rewards.

Hello Doctor

Hello Doctor gives expert health advice from a qualified medical doctor via the member's mobile phone, whenever they need it, and this service is available for free to FundsAtWork members.

Hello Doctor is a service provider that was born from the heart-felt need for affordable, immediate access to trusted health services. The key to get to those in need is to harness the most widely available access point – the mobile phone. This enables Hello Doctor to give personalised healthcare to anyone, at anytime, anywhere. This means that members can ask a qualified medical doctor any health related question they have, 24 hours a day.

FundsAtWork members where Momentum has their valid ID number, cell number and email address have access to Hello Doctor. Qualifying members will receive their Hello Doctor login details via email or sms and all they need to do is download the App and login with the details SMS'd to  their cell number.

Multiply

Multiply, Momentum's wellness and rewards programme is all about helping members get more out of life. By joining Multiply they commit to helping the member improve their finances, health, fitness, safety and their family's education.

Members earn points for undergoing assessments and taking actions to improve their health and financial wellness, enjoying increased rewards as their status level improves based on the points they have earned.

Earning points for getting fitter is easier than ever before. Members are able to record calories burned or steps taken using apps or wearable devices, thereby earning an Active Day. Now they will no longer be restricted to activities like going to the gym or walking, but will be able to do what they love to earn points – as long as they are active.
